

October 2014 Stage 4
THE GALLOWS

Ammo required: 9 Rifle 10 or 5 Pistol 2+ Shotgun

It is 1878 here in Fort Smith Arkansas. You are a U.S. Deputy Marshall working for Judge Isaac Parker's Court. Today you are hanging one of the very worst Outlaws who ever terrorized the Indian territory. All of a sudden his gang charges the gallows in an effort to rescue him. Judge Parker is getting nervous.

Stage Procedure:

Pistols holstered with (5) rounds each HDOEC. Rifle loaded with (10) rounds staged on left table action closed HDOEC. Shotgun staged open and empty on table in right bay .

Starting Position:

Standing behind the table in the left bay with both hands on your hips.

When the Shooter is ready say the line “Don't worry Judge. I'll stop em”.

At the Beep, Retrieve your Rifle and sweep the Cowboys three times in any direction. No double taps. Make Rifle safe and re-stage on table. Move to middle of the center bay. With your Pistols shoot a continuous “Nevada Sweep” in any direction. Holster and move to right bay. Retrieve your Shotgun and shoot the Knockdowns until down. Make Shotgun safe and proceed to unloading table.

Targets required: (6) Cowboy, (2) Knockdowns
